Dear County Commissioners:

Those of us who have been fighting the war against loud noise, and most specifically so-called 'boom cars,' applaud the actions you have taken to deal with this dangerous and unhealthy form of pollution. Communities where control of the problem has been most successful are where the governing authorities have taken bold and aggressive steps.

The loss of this state's very effective stereo noise ordinance via the Supreme Court's December 2012 ruling in the Catalano case has been a serious setback in the war on subwoofers and those who would rattle our windows and shake our doors. Efforts to reinstate the law have fallen on deaf ears in Tallahassee, forcing local communities to enact their own laws to fill the vacuum. Most have been too timid to take that step. You are applauded for your courage.

News reports indicated that at least one of your commissioners urged an ordinance providing jail time and confiscation of the vehicle for repeat offenders. Please note that this is by no means unheard of; it can be done and is being done elsewhere in the country. In Salisbury, MD, for example, the fine is $500 and/or 90 days in jail. You may find after a year's review that some of your chronic offenders are going to need more than a $500 fine to correct their behavior - after all, some of them have spent thousands of dollars to convert their cars into audio-assault weapons. Consider the man in Plant City who has bragged about receiving more than 80 tickets for his loud car stereo.

Many of these loud-noise lovers are dangerously aggressive because of the adrenaline their stereos generate, and the victim of this aggression is likely to be a law enforcement officer, as happened just before Christmas in Tarpon Springs.

Again, our thanks. By copy of this letter we are asking each and every county commission in this state to follow your example and help us stamp out this plague.

Sincerely,

Judy Ellis

WHS PROJECT GRADUATION 2015

Dear Friends:

Each year, a number of fresh high school graduates are tragically lost to foolhardy post-graduation celebrations. To prevent such tragedies among our area students, Project Graduation sponsors an all-night, alcohol-free, locked-in celebration for graduates. After the commencement exercises, graduates will be taken to Fusion Fitness in Panama City for a fun-filled night of door prizes, games, and food resulting in happy memories to last a lifetime. We need your support to make this project a success. Your gift of a monetary donation would be greatly appreciated. If you need more information about Project Graduation and its impact on our graduating seniors, please do not hesitate to contact the president of the Project Graduation Committee. Again, any assistance you or your company may be able to provide would be very welcome. Thank you for your consideration of this project.

Appreciatively,

Sharon Barrier
